

JOSEPH SMITH SR
—AND—
LUCY MACK SMITH
FAMILY REUNION

“Wherefore, my dear children, I pray, beseech, and adjure you by all the relations and dearness that hath ever been betwixt us and by the heartrending pangs of dying father whose soul hath been ever bound in the bundle of life with yours, that you know one another. Visit as you may each one another... if possible, once every year...or if you cannot meet, send to and hear from each other yearly and oftener if you can; and when you have neither father nor mother left be so many fathers and mothers to each other, so you shall understand the blessings mentioned in the 133 Psalm.”

— Asael Smith,
Father of Joseph Smith, Sr.

Daniel Adams reminded us why we should give back through this Service Project:

“Father and Mother Smith knew better than anyone what it meant to be refugees. But their trials had also allowed them to glimpse eternity. They saw their heavenly home and what their family could be, and this knowledge, like that of the saints before, gave them the strength to endure, to continue to dream of their heavenly home.”

“This year marks the 200th anniversary of Father and Mother Smith being driven from their home and having to rebuild once again, in a tiny log cabin in Palmyra, New York. Here they would find a short refuge until they would be forced again to leave. Here, Father and Mother Smith would read the Bible to their children and plead for divine protection. Here, Joseph Sr. told his children of his remarkable dreams of the restoration. Here, Lucy would tell her children how God answered her desperate prayers in a grove of trees. Here, Joseph would read the invitation of the Apostle James and determine to ask of God what he should do. Here the heavens would rend and the Angel Moroni would descend to reveal a mighty work and a wonder. Here, the family gathered nightly to hear Joseph recount his remarkable visions of the ancient inhabitants of this continent. Here, the Smith boys and girls grew strong in faith and work, believing that God was watching over their family. Here, more than any other place, symbolized the true meaning of a covenant family, that no matter the coming persecution, trials and difficulties, what can be ours when we dream of our heavenly home.”

“On this 200th anniversary, the Joseph Sr. and Lucy Mack Smith descendants have the opportunity to gather in Salt Lake and help current refugees that have been driven from their homes and lost all of their worldly possessions. We will be building bunk beds for refugee children and their families. We would like to give each family a history of the Smith Family and Smith embroidered blanket for each bed, so they might know that God is aware of them, that our family understands to some degree what it means to be refugees, and now with this gift, perhaps they too can dream of a heavenly home.”

“God Be with You Till We Meet Again”

Sunday Morning, August 5

In 2013 we placed the wreath made by the youth during the reunion for our family to see as they went in door eight of the Conference Center before Music and the Spoken Word.

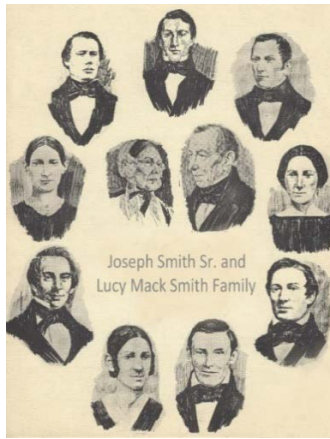

Everyone 8 and older should meet at Door 8 on the west side of the Conference Center (not the Tabernacle) by 9:00 a.m. Parents can take those under 8 to door 2 and be seated in the Little Theater to watch the broadcast.

After Music and the Spoken Word

Stay seated until the crowd disperses

President M. Russell Ballard is Acting President of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He has served as an Apostle for over 30 years. Elder Ballard serves as the Co-Chairman of the Joseph Smith Sr. and Lucy Mack Smith Family Foundation and the Family Association.

Sharon Eubanks is the first counselor in the general presidency of the Relief Society of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. At the time of her call in April 2017, Sister Eubank was employed as the director of LDS Charities, the humanitarian organization of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and she continues in this role while serving in the Relief Society.

Lachlan Mackay is the historic sites coordinator for Community of Christ. In this role, he oversees sites in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, and Ohio. Lachlan is a well-known researcher and author and has contributed much to the history of the Latter-day saint movement. He is serving in Community of Christ's Council of Twelve. He serves as a Trustee of the Joseph Smith Sr. and Lucy Mack Smith Family Foundation and the Family Association.

Anina Mackay Luff worked for Restoration Trail Foundation, now Community of Christ Historic Sites Foundation, from 1988 to 1995. During her tenure at the foundation she supported the Nauvoo Smith Family Cemetery beautification project. Anina served on the Smith Family Foundation's cemetery advisory committee from 1990 to 2016 and each spring made annual pilgrimages to Nauvoo to design and plant the flower beds with the help of husband John Luff and brother Dan and Rosemarie Larsen.

Karl Ricks Anderson is a Latter-day Saint historian whose specialty is the Kirtland period in the history of the Latter-day Saints. He has authored a number of books and articles. Karl has served for 25 years as Secretary and Executive Secretary of the Joseph Smith Sr. and Lucy Mack Smith Family Foundation and the Family Association.

Brad Wilcox grew up in Provo, Utah except for childhood years spent in Ethiopia, Africa. He served his mission in Chile and later returned to that country to serve as a mission president. He is a professor at Brigham Young University and has served as a member of the Sunday School General Board for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The Wolfgramms have been working for over 10 years to create music that will bring the spirit of love and family to its listeners. They were privileged to perform at the Smith Family Reunion in Salt Lake City for the celebration of Eldred G. Smith's 100th birthday back in 2007. They also sang in 2016 in Nauvoo. Today they are happy to again be here and to share the gift of music with all of you.

 Together Forever Medley – This medley was arranged with the hope and intent that it would be sung at the funeral of Patriarch Eldred G. Smith by all of his family members, but due to time constraints it was not possible to rehearse in time for a funeral performance. This will be the first time this arrangement has been performed, which seems appropriate in light of our reunion theme “Dreaming of a Heavenly Home.”

“O God, let the residue of my father’s house...ever come up in remembrance before thee and stand virtuous and pure in thy presence, that thou mayest save them from the hand of the oppressor, and establish their feet upon the rock of ages, that they may have place in thy house and be saved in thy kingdom, even where God, and Christ is, and let all these things be as I have said, for Christ’s sake, Amen.”

- Joseph Smith Jr.
