Youth Log Cabin

Saturday, August 4, 2018

*Brook Young came to the Pioneer Pavilion and gathered the youth who wanted to build the log cabin *The youth rode the train to the Mary Fielding Home to about and participate in building a log cabin like their ancestors did *The conductor of the train added humor as he drove around This Is The Place Heritage Park and delivered the family above their destination

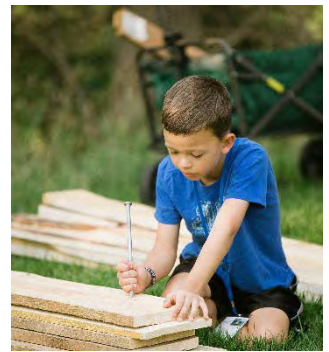

*Jennifer Knapp and crew heading to Mary Fielding Smith's log cabin on the train

*The youth learned how to take the bark off of the logs and how to stack them together *Bob Park taught the youth about building barrels just like Joseph Smith Sr. and Hyrum Smith did

*Bob and Renee Park interacting and instructing the youth

*The youth carved their names in the boards used to make the roof as a way on committing to follow their ancestors

*The view of the Salt Lake Valley looking out from Mary Fielding Smith's Home at This Is The Place Heritage Park

*Mary Fielding Smith Home

*Bob and Renee Park showing wooden barrels and how to make them *The log cabin as it was being built

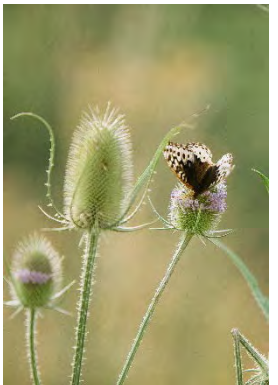

*Jeanine Orme brought her fiddle *The youth dressed up in pioneer type clothing and learned how to square dance

*Square dancing by Mary Fielding Smith's home was a fun time for all those who participated as the youth switched off between activity stations

*Frances Orton telling the family about the wreath made by Holly McMahon

* Kristen Newman portrayed Mary Fielding Smith and sang to the family
