Ina Coolbrith (1841 – 1928)

Born Josephine Donna Smith

includes a memorial to the victims of 9/11 depicted by a Fire Fighter reaching busts of special humanitarians of California. One of the Humanitarians depicted is a cousin of ours, Ina Coolbrith (1811 – 1876). Your cousin, Ina, was an internationally beloved poet from California and the very first librarian of the Oakland Public Library system. She was also the first person asked to write a commencement speech for the University of California, and did so twice. She was held in the highest esteem by many famous writers of her time, including Mark Twain, and Joaquin Miller, Jack London, her mentee, called her his “literary mother”, and Isadora Duncan, whom Coobrith mentored as well, recalled in her memoirs “the beauty and fire of the poet’s eyes.”

So shall it be with my father; he shall be called a prince over his posterity, holding the keys of the patriarchal priesthood over the kingdom of God on earth, even the Church of the Latter Day Saints, and he shall sit in the general assembly of patriarchs, even in council with the Ancient of Days when he shall sit and all the patriarchs with him and shall enjoy his right and authority under the direction of the Ancient of Days.

Family Spotlight - John MACK (Mackgahye)

The Macks of Scotland are descended from Milesius of Spain from about 1200 BC. A descendant of Joseph in the Old Testament gave his youngest son, Ephraim the Stone of Destiny or sometimes called Stone of Scone. Ephraim's descendant was Getholius, a great explorer and also a prince in Israel. He married Scots, the daughter of Pharaoh Ramses II. Their son was Iser (Heber), Hammut, daughter of Jeremiah (Prophet of the Bible) married Josiah, King of Palestine or Israel. Ephraim gave the Stone of Destiny to Milesius, who eventually reached the shores of Ireland and became the father of Heremon and his descendant was John Mack. Covenantors Scottish Notes and Queries by John Auldjo, John Alexander Henderson ... 15th (SCOTIA AND FOREBENEFIT COVENANTERS WERE THE NON-COVENANTERS IN SCOTLAND IN THE 1600s. IN 1653 THE BATTLE OF DUNBAR, 5000 SCOTS WERE TAKEN PRISONERS AND THOSE THAT SURVIVED THE MARCH TO ENGLAND WERE SENT TO AMERICA ON THE SHIP JOHN AND SARAH AS INDENTURED SERVANTS.) Court Record/Military Record of a John Mack (Father of the immigrant John Mack) in 1679 Bothwell (John Mack could have escaped aboard the Anne and Heester in April 1680. Ship arrived in Boston, MA from Ireland with Scotch Covenantors. The Scottish birth records show a John Mack - born to John and Barbara Mack - on October 24, 1653. ## SMITH, Heidi Mae - 1994

Isaac and Heidi Smith Family Spotlight [\[edit\]](#)

I am married to S. Isaac Smith (no previous relation). We currently have five children: Savannah 7, Charlotte 6, Madelynn 3, Zachary is almost 2, and Caroline is 4 months old. I am from North Georgia. My husband is in the Army as a helicopter pilot, and we are currently stationed at Fort Rucker, AL.

I met Isaac when I was living in Utah. I was preparing to serve a mission and living with my sister. I already had my mission call to Argentina and was scheduled to report to the MTC in 4 1/2 weeks, when I decided to attend a single adult activity one night (something that I had been avoiding), and met Isaac. He asked me out on a date before I could sneak out of the activity. We hit it off pretty quickly, but Isaac was scheduled to report to Fort Rucker, AL for flight school at about the same time I was supposed to report to the MTC, so we had to make a quick decision. We decided to elope! I had only known him for 4 weeks and 1 day, but when you know it is right there is no point in beating around the bush. I followed him to Alabama as his wife. Now nine years later we are back in AL, this time with a load of kids and Isaac as an instructor pilot. Life has been wonderful!

I stay very busy with the kids. I homeschool Savannah who is in 2nd grade, Charlotte who is in 1st grade, and Madelynn who is just learning her letter sounds and how to write. Zach is a monster! I need at least 4 arms to keep him out of trouble. Miss Caroline is my only good one left! She doesn't get into anything, doesn't talk back, or whine. She is a sweet, smiley baby. I love homeschooling, I love being with my kids, and I love being a mom.

Isaac is a Scout Master, loves to work outside, run, cook, and fly. He genuinely loves people and, as a result, people love him; he has never met a stranger.

We enjoy cooking together as a family; we host a family every Sunday for dinner. We try to go on weekly hikes with our kids. We have usually lived in areas where we can raise sheep, goats, and chickens, as well as have a garden. We are also big on emergency preparedness and actively work towards being more self-sufficient. We would like to get a study group going here in AL soon, centered around the principles of the Constitution, as we have done in the past.

I keep a family blog at <http://www.isaacandheidi.blogspot.com> to see pictures of us.
